

Biosketch

Stefan RAUH, MD

CURRENT AND PAST POSITIONS

Deputy Medical Director and Senior Oncologist within the Departments of Hemato-Oncology and Palliative Care at the Centre Hospitalier Emile Mayrisch (CHEM), Esch/Differdange, Luxembourg; head of the medical oncology and palliative care departments since 2021.

Post-graduate training in Internal Medicine and Oncology at TUM Munich (Germany, 1991-1993), CHU Nancy (France, 1993-1994) and CHL Luxembourg (1994-1998). Board Certified for Internal Medicine (2018).

EDUCATION

Studies at the Faculty of Medicine, Regensburg (1983-1985), TUM Munich (1985-1990), and Lausanne, Switzerland (1990).

AWARDS AND HONORS

Fellow of the European Society of Medical Oncology (ESMO), 2022.

OTHER RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Past President of the Société Luxembourgeoise d'Oncologie (SLO), 2020-2024. Former Chair of the ESMO Practising Oncologists' Committee and former ESMO Executive Board member (2015-2016). European head of the UEMS Section of Medical Oncology (since 2023). Editor of "Survivorship Care for Cancer Patients: A Clinician's Handbook" (Springer Nature, 2021). Author of numerous peer-reviewed publications, book chapters and editorials in medical oncology, cancer survivorship and public health policy.